With a partner, create verb flashcards for this unit's new verbs and any old ones you wish to include. Test each other on the plain form of the verb. Write the plain form on one side and the ます form on the other side. You can ask your partner first to practise reading the plain form and then test him/her on each.

Complete the verb crossword in hiragana. All the verbs are to be written in the plain form. Use the verb charts at the back of the Student Book if you need to.
